Sidney Eugene Sargent, the expert accountant, who examined the defunct firm's books, testified that the firm commenced business March 31, 1891, and made an assignment for over a million seven months later.

The firm started with a capital of $150,000, divided as follows: Edward M. Fleid, $50,000; Daniel A. Lindley, $50,000; John F. Wicchers, $50,000.

This included the seat in the Stock Exchange held by Mr. Lindley, and valued at $20,000.

When the new firm started, Mr. Sargent said, the books showed that it assumed the $300,000 liabilities of the firm of Lindley & Co. At 1 o'clock the Court took a recess.

SEEKING HER RUNAWAY SPOUSE

Mrs. Nowirsks and Two Childre Found Destitute In This City. Francesca Nowirska, a Polish woman and her two children, the eldest four and a half years and the younges twenty-two months, were sent from the Tombs Court to the Board of Charities and Correction this morning with a request from Justice Ryan to return them to Passale, N. J., whence the woman came five days ago to search for her runaway husband.

The little family slept on benches in the Cortlandt street ferry-house last night.

The husband, whose name is Thomas Nowirska, deserted his family May 20, leaving them destitute. The Passaic authorities will be asked to hunt him up. HIS DEATH SUSPICIOUS.
